Reed Gabriele

Reed Joseph - You are a shining light!! A few things to remember along this next adventure. Wake up early so that the day is yours. Always feed the animals before yourself. Remember to follow the good feeling thoughts and let them lead your way. Remember to trust your instincts. Always tuck your kids into bed & say your prayers. Stop and take the time to capture the sunset. Be grateful always for what you have & then more will come. Always know that you are so so very deeply loved. The hard times always pass & the great times always come! We are so proud to call you our son.
